Choose the appropriate response for each element (Not at all agree - Slightly agree - Somewhat agree - Very much agree):

There are too many immigrants in Italy

Immigrants take jobs away from locals

Immigrants receive more public assistance than poor Italians

Immigrants do the jobs Italians no longer want to do

It is easier to integrate a Christian immigrant than a Muslim immigrant

It is a moral duty to welcome immigrants in difficulty

In a rich economy like Veneto, immigrants are needed

Personally, I have never had particular problems with people from or originating in other countries

Whoever grows up in Veneto is Veneto, regardless of the family they come from

Immigrants benefitted our economy

Immigrants have been good for the culture of the country

People sometimes talk about politics in terms of 'right' and 'left'. Where would you place yourself on the following scale, where 1 indicates 'left', 5 indicates 'centre', 9 indicates 'right'?

Please choose only one of the following:

Choose only one of the following:

- To everyone who has a job, regardless of occupation and contractual status
- To employees
- To the self-employed, VAT numbers
- To those who work hard
- To trade unions

To what extent do you agree or disagree with each of the following statements?

Choose the appropriate answer for each item (Completely disagree - Disagree - Neutral Attitude - Agree - Strongly agree):

- Politicians in the Italian parliament must follow the will of the people
- People, not politicians, should make our most important political decisions
- The political differences between the elite and the common people are greater than the differences between the people themselves
- I would rather be represented by a citizen than a specialised politician
- Elected officials talk too much and act too little
- What people call 'compromise' in politics actually means giving up one's principles
- The special interests of the political class have a negative effect on people's well-being
- Politicians always end up agreeing when it comes to protecting their privileges
- The task of a parliamentarian is to carry forward the demands of the area where he was elected rather than those of his own party
- The task of a parliamentarian is to put forward the demands of the area where he was elected rather than those of certain social classes
- The mayor is first and foremost a representative of the citizens and not of the party to which he belongs

- The interests of entrepreneurs generally do not conflict with those of workers, the good of the one is the good of the other
- I feel closer to the people who live in my area, even if they are of a different social status, than people of the same social status who live in other parts of Italy

The opposite of the word 'workers' that first comes to mind is...

Choose only one of the following:

- Unemployed
- Entrepreneurs
- Slackers

Recently, as you may know, the territory of the Prosecco Hills was included among the UNESCO World Heritage Sites. How much do you agree with each of the following statements?

Please choose the appropriate answer for each item (Not at all agree - Slightly agree - Somewhat agree - Strongly agree):

- It is a great honour
- It will ensure the protection of the environment from speculation and pollution
- It will attract tourism and this is good for our economy
- It will attract tourism and this is a problem because rental costs will rise
- It will favour the Prosecco economy and therefore pollution
- It will favour the Prosecco economy and therefore create new jobs

There is a lot of talk about the environment, the need to tackle pollution, and the spin-offs this could have in economic terms. Which of the following two statements do you most agree with?

Choose only one of the following:

- Each of us can already do a lot by reducing waste and changing our lifestyle
- It is necessary to impose changes and new laws to protect the environment, the good will of individuals is not enough

There is a lot of talk about the environment, the need to tackle pollution, and the impact this could have in economic terms. Which of the following statements do you most agree with?

Choose only one of the following:

- Environmental protection is more important than economic growth
- It is easy to talk about environmental protection without thinking about the economic consequences

There is a lot of talk about the environment, the need to tackle pollution, and the consequences this could have in economic terms. Which of the following statements do you most agree with?

Choose only one of the following:

- The green economy (e.g. using renewable energy) would boost our economy
- The transition to a green economy, at least at the beginning, would mean a loss for our economy

There is a lot of talk about the environment, the need to tackle pollution, and the spin-offs this could have in economic terms. Which of the following statements do you most agree with?

Choose only one of the following:

- New jobs will be generated which will compensate for the loss of jobs in traditional polluting sectors
- New jobs will be generated, but it will be difficult to find work for those who will lose their jobs in traditional polluting sectors

We hear a lot about healthcare, which is an area of responsibility of the region, and cuts that sometimes affect peripheral hospitals. What should local (municipal) politicians do about this?

Choose only one of the following:

- Pay attention to future developments and follow events, even if all in all the region is doing well
- Put pressure on the Region to defend the health service in my area, even if this means affecting other areas
- Put pressure on the region to avoid cuts altogether, even if it means limiting other expenditures

Some say that taxes should be reduced even at the cost of reducing public services. Others say services should be expanded even at the cost of raising taxes. Where would you place your opinion, on a scale of 1 to 9?

Please choose only one of the following:

1 - More services even if more taxes

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9 - Less taxes though fewer services

Which political-administrative level would you assign more powers to ensure transparency and efficiency?

Choose only one of the following:

- Central government
- Region
- Municipality

Which of these alternatives would you wish for the future of the Veneto Region?

Choose only one of the following:

- Autonomy
- Independence
- Neither autonomy Nor independence
